

Please do not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protection. Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has eliminated unwanted intrusion into our family time by solicitation calls. I used to receive well over two dozen unwanted calls per week, now it has reduced to a few calls per month. I feel Indiana's law has improved our quality of life and is very important to us.